

Sankalp - Terms and Conditions

1. Eligibility:

Participants must be enrolled in a recognized educational institution. Organizers reserve the right to disqualify entries that do not meet eligibility requirements.

2. Entry Submission:

All entries must be submitted by the specified deadline. Late entries may not be considered and can be directly disqualified.

3. Originality and Plagiarism:

Participants must submit original work. Plagiarized content will lead to disqualification. By submitting, participants affirm the originality of their entries.

4. Intellectual Property:

Participants retain ownership of their intellectual property. However, by entering the competition, participants grant SOSC and its partners/sponsors the right to use the submitted content for future promotional purposes.

5. Judging Criteria:

Entries will be judged based on the creativity, innovation and feasibility. The decision of the judges is final and binding.

6. Prizes:

Prizes are non-transferable and may be subject to taxation.

7. Code of Conduct:

Participants must adhere to a high standard of conduct. Any behavior deemed inappropriate by the organizers may result in disqualification.

8. Disqualification:

Organizers reserve the right to disqualify participants for violations of the terms and conditions or any unethical behavior.

9. Changes and Cancellation:

The organizers reserve the right to make changes to the competition, including but not limited to rules, schedule, and prizes. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, SOSC may cancel the competition without liability.

10. Limitation of Liability:

SOSC, its sponsors, and affiliates are not responsible for any loss, damage, injury, or inconvenience arising out of or related to the competition.

11. Privacy Policy:

Participants' personal information may be collected for the purpose of the competition. By entering, participants agree to the collection and use of their data for future promotions and newsletters by SOSC or its sponsors.

12. Submission Requirements:

All entries must adhere to the specified submission format and guidelines provided by SOSC. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in disqualification. Participants are responsible for ensuring the completeness and accuracy of their submissions.

13. Communication:

Participants should provide accurate contact information during the registration process. SOSC will communicate important updates, announcements, and results to the provided contact details. It is the participant's responsibility to check their email and other communication channels regularly.

14. Collaborative Projects:

In the case of team submissions, a designated team leader must be identified. The team leader will be the primary point of contact, and all communications and prizes will be directed to the team leader.

15. Publicity and Media:

Participants agree to participate in interviews, photoshoots, and promotional activities related to the competition. SOSC reserves the right to use participants' names, likenesses, and submitted content for promotional purposes in various media channels.

16. Networking Opportunities:

By participating, participants may have the opportunity to network with industry professionals, sponsors, and fellow participants. SOSC does not guarantee any business or employment opportunities resulting from these connections.

17. Social Media Engagement:

Participants are encouraged to engage with SOSC and the competition on social media platforms. However, inappropriate or offensive content may result in disqualification or removal from official channels.

18. Event Attendance:

Finalists may be required to attend the award ceremony or related events. SOSC will not cover travel, accommodation, or other expenses unless explicitly stated.

19. Public Voting:

SOSC may incorporate public voting as part of the competition. Votes may be considered in the judging process, but the final decision rests with the official judging panel.

20. Feedback and Evaluation:

Participants may receive feedback on their submissions at the discretion of the organizers. The feedback provided is for educational purposes and does not guarantee any changes to the competition results.

21. Sponsorship and Endorsements:

Sponsors and partners associated with the competition are independent entities. SOSC does not endorse or guarantee the products, services, or views of sponsors and partners.

22. Force Majeure:

SOSC is not liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under these terms and conditions if such failure or delay is due to acts beyond its control, including but not limited to natural disasters, wars, or governmental actions.

23. Severability:

If any provision of these terms and conditions is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue to be valid and enforceable.

24. Waiver:

The failure of SOSC to enforce any provision of these terms and conditions shall not be considered a waiver of its right to enforce such provision.

